

“Wells” are the name we have for our small group communities. Like the woman who met Jesus at the well, our hope is that these communities would be a place where we encounter Jesus and a space where we find life through the Spirit. Although each group has different dynamics and practices, our hope is that they all embody our Covenant practices of Gathering, Welcoming, Listening and Offering. We want to meet together to grow in relationship and faith as we regularly ask our core discipleship questions: What is the Lord saying? and How do we respond faithfully? We hope that you will join us!
